Hon. Paul Clark, who was advertised to speak at the opera house Friday night of last week, was unable to be present. Hon. C. W. Seymour of Nebraska City and Hon. H. M. Bushnell of Lincoln made addresses. Peter Berlet and J. W. Armstrong also spoke briefly. The glee club furnished good music. There was a large crowd present.

Dr. Keeling received the sad news Monday morning of the death of his grandson, Irving L., son of Edgar L. and Marion R. Culver, of Omaha. The little fellow was aged one year, nine months and nineteen days. Dr. and Mrs. Keeling went to Omaha Monday to attend the funeral, which was held Tuesday. They returned home Wednesday.

Peter Berlet has made enemies, as has every man of positive convictions and who is outspoken. But he has the warm friendship of almost every man in the neighborhood where he lives, no matter what his politics are, who will defend Peter Berlet and have a good word to say for him at all times. He is an enterprising business man, a good citizen and a good neighbor, and he is going to be elected.

M. S. McIninch is recognized as one of the best of the younger attorneys of Auburn and is rapidly gaining a front rank. He is a close student and a young man of great ability, an eloquent and logical speaker, and will make as good a county attorney as Nemaha county ever had. He handles his cases with ability and judgment and is a winner. Be sure and make a cross after his name.

G. N. Titus probably has more warm friends in this part of the county than any man living here. He has given employment to a large number of men, women and children and all have a good word to say for Nat Titus. He has always been strictly honorable in all his business transactions and has built up a large business by strict attention to business. He has always kept himself well posted on public affairs, is a man of good judgment, and will make a record as a representative from Nemaha county of which we will all be proud. See that an X is made after his name.

J. W. Armstrong is an honorable christian gentleman and has the confidence of the people who have had business relations with him for years. He was appointed postmaster of South Auburn during President Arthur's administration and again during the administration of Benjamin Harrison. Two years ago he was elected representative by a majority of 44, although the county went fusion on the state ticket. He made a good record in the legislature and is better fitted for doing effective work at the next session. Do not fail to make an X after his name.

Don't fail to make a cross after the name of every candidate for every state, congressional, legislative, county or precinct office that you want to cast a vote for. You can vote for all the candidate for presidential electors by making a cross in the circle to the right of the names, but for every other candidate you wish to vote for you should make a cross in the square to the right of their name. Be careful and mark every candidate.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D Williams of Manchester, Mich., says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work. This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by W W Keeling, druggist.
